- SAMS UK and Ireland together with the Anglican Church in Paraguay will do all it can to place a suitable volunteer but placements depend on the needs of the Church at any particular time.
 - The minimum age is 18yrs at time of travel although in certain circumstances younger people may be considered if accompanied by parents.
 - All costs associated with a short-term placement (including all travel, accommodation costs and insurance) are financed by the volunteer.
 - All volunteers will be required to attend an orientation event in the UK prior to travel.
 - Places are limited and not all applicants may be accepted. People who have been on a past Mission Paraguay visit cannot be guaranteed return visits.
 - Dates for group visits are agreed with the Anglican church in Paraguay. Arrangements for people wishing to travel on alternative days may be possible but cannot be guaranteed.

I confirm that all the information given upon this application form is true.

I have read through and understand the conditions of this Application Form.

If accepted, I am willing to work where there is the most suitable placement for me.
