

September 2014

Paraguay Pray for the young people that Claire Holmes works with in Concepcion, that God will really be working in their lives, strengthening and encouraging them in their faith. Pray that God will raise up leaders within the church in Concepcion and for the church's visits to various areas, that people will come to know God. Give thanks for the Mission Paraguay team and for the work they were able to do throughout the summer. Give thanks for David Orritt and for all the work he put into organising and leading the team.

Red Box Project Pray for Cecilia and her visits to the women's detention centre in Salta, that God will strengthen the relationships she has with the staff and the girls in the centre. Pray that in the future more and more girls will be given permission to leave the centre to spend time with Cecilia and attend Bible studies or church services. Pray too for the work that Cecilia does with the Romance Academy and for those who are currently doing the course, that it will help them grow closer to God.

Peru Pray for Paul and Sarah in their ministries with young people, that God will lead them and show them the way forward in sharing the Good News of Christ with the young people and children they work with. Pray for Lizbeth Varillas who is currently studying in Buenos Aires and give thanks for this opportunity she has been given to further her knowledge on Youth Ministry.

Chile Pray for Cristobal Ceron in his outreach work with St James' Church, Santiago where he reaches out to people by offering coffee and sandwiches on the streets. Ask for God's protection and blessing over him and his team. Pray too for Max Diaz as he continues his work as a Student Worker in the University in Santiago, for guidance and wisdom as he meets with students on campus. Pray too for those who have been affected by the recent earthquake in Valparaiso.

FUSION Give thanks for Dany Retamal who has been involved in different children's ministries around Northern Ireland over the summer. Pray for her as she continues her placements in Maghera Parish and Coleraine Parish. Pray for God's guidance for her.

ST Andrew's College Pray for Gwen Carlisle and Mags Southern and the rest of the staff at St Andrew's College as they continue their school year. Pray for their students, for motivation, guidance and strength in their school work.

Pray for guidance as St Andrew's College is currently looking for a qualified Primary School teacher for their next school year which will begin February 2015. As it is getting ever closer, pray that the college will find a Godly person who is equipped for this role and willing to serve overseas.

SAMS House Give thanks for Geoff Hamilton who has recently finished his time working with SAMS UK & Ireland after around 16 years service. Geoff will begin Ordination Training at CITI later this the month. Give thanks for his service to SAMS over the past 2 decades and pray for him and Jill as they begin this new chapter in their lives.
