Pancakes with lemon and sugar and shepherds pie! Surely not in Ecuador!?

FOOD: I have enjoyed eating Ecuadorian food. People in Ecuador like to eat lots of rice. They eat rice with chicken, meat or fish. I made Shepherds Pie recently and the family I am staying with really loved it. What is your favourite meal? I also made pancakes for some friends and they had never eaten them with lemon and sugar before. It was a new experience for them. What do you like on your pancakes? We all like eating different things. God made us all different which is really cool!

SCHOOL: I move to Santo Domingo to work in the school on Monday 4th July. I am excited but a little bit nervous too. Santo Domingo is 3 hours away from Quito. It is very hot and humid and people speak very fast there! I have been to visit the school. The children all need a bit more time to learn new things in school. I hope to be able to help them a bit.

MOVING HOUSE: Have you ever moved house? How did you feel? Excited? Scared? Worried? I am moving house at the start of July and feel a bit worried. I really liked where I used to live and have made some good friends there.

In the last newsletter I told you about some of the big mountains here. I have climbed a volcano. The volcano was so tall. I had to walk very slowly because the air was very different that high up.

Lady in the red T-shirt was my Spanish teacher.

Quito. Lots of houses built close together and mountains in the background.

Houses are very different here. They are small and often cold at night as they do not have any heating.

Can you see me at the top of the volcano?

Things to find:

- Can you see a plane flying in one of the pictures?
- How many pancakes are on the table?
- Why do you think I wore sunglasses when climbing up the volcano when it was so cold and snow was on the ground?
- What do you think people wear in Santo Domingo where it is really hot?

PRAY WITH ME:

SPANISH:

To remember all of my new Spanish words

SAFETY:

I travel to Santo Domingo on Monday 4th July. Please remember to pray that God keeps me safe on the bus. I will be on the bus for 3 hours.

SCHOOL:

That I will make friends with the children and teachers really quickly. Pray that I will be able to tell the children about Jesus.

GIVE THANKS:

SPANISH:

I have finished my Spanish lessons!

FRIENDS:

I have made some good friends here. These friends have helped me. They have showed me where to get buses and also prayed with me.

I am very thankful and always very happy to get emails from friends in England.

SAFETY:

That I have not been poorly. That I have been safe as I have travelled on the buses
