School Anniversary

Last week we had our school anniversary service in which we also remembered our founder, Auntie Thea, who died in January. It was a lovely service and everyone seemed touched by it. The pupils listened well. Pastor Ronnie spoke on Zephaniah 3:17 which was the verse from Auntie Thea's funeral. Ronnie spoke well with a great visual aid which involved a few of the children. It made them all laugh but he got his point over.

life and this also affects our school routine. The Ministry of Education doesn't have a legal requirement of how many days the pupils attend school nor fines and punishments for those who miss school. Many of ours go off travelling in term time. We'd love you to pray for our secondary pupils, that they would settle and take school seriously and that they would know the Lord's hand on their lives.

It's been hard getting the secondary pupils to settle after the holidays. Many of them are not motivated to work hard as there are no national exams to pass to get to university. There are, of course, some who do work hard. The National University requires an admittance exam but many others just require fees! Many of our pupils know they'll go to university and they'll have a job afterwards which doesn't urge them to work hard now! They also have an active social

Well, we've had a very profitable day. Both of us have managed to get quite a lot of school work done and were glad of the time to do it. Mags is now baking with Splash tripping her up at every turn!

Thankyou to everyone for all your support and prayers. They mean a lot to us.

God Bless, Love Mags and Gwen
