Hola amigos,

I hope you're well. I'm enjoying getting stuck into church life, including helping with Sunday School & the Young People. One week after church we played a team game that was a cross between paintballing & archery. I spent much of the time cowering behind empty oil-drums trying to re-load my bow whilst being hunted down by our opponents – not my finest moment! We've enjoyed more civilised (food-based) activities as well. The church had an impromptu sing-along after the Mother's day service including traditional songs in Spanish & Quechua.

Cuyes (Guinea Pigs)

Day service

Lizbeth & I spent 3 days in Chiclayo with San Marcos mission which meets in a home. We stayed with a local family that breeds cuyes in their back yard (we didn't eat any – this time!) The Saturday event had a good turn-out & included Biblical teaching, games & worship. Throughout the weekend we were able to spend time with the young people both socially and more formally, to discuss ideas for future work with teenagers in the church and local community.

Autumn has arrived & I had difficulty getting into prison once as personal visitors aren't allowed to wear leggings, scarves or hoodies. I got in on my 3rd attempt with very cold legs (leaving a carrier bag of the aforementioned clothes with Ramon, a local shopkeeper). A was waiting for me with a flask of hot water as she knew I was taking in tea bags for her. As well as visiting A, I also chatted with C who has been in holding for 3 months & is now in the main pavillion waiting to be extradited back to the States. All my love, Anna xx

Please join me in giving thanks for:

- My church family at La Ascensión.
- The national youth leaders' conference (organised by Especialidades Juveniles) – it was an inspiring weekend.
- Our youth pastoral visit to Chiclayo, for the children, young people & parents that attended the event.

Please continue to pray for:

- My trip to Bogota (5th-10th June) as I have to re-enter Peru on a new visa & my next immigration meeting on the 12th.
- My work in the women's prison, for A & C as they wait for the next stages of legal proceedings & for their families.
- Wisdom managing my time & workload.
