Caroline's news

June 2012

Hello dear friends

Alley cats – a welcome diversion

I live at the back of a supermarket with an untidy cardboard box depot which attracts wildlife. The mother cat, above in the photo, has three kittens who have been bouncing around the block where I live. The kitten below bounced a bit too far and got marooned. Mother toughed it out and the wailing went on for hours. Now the kittens know their way around the rooftops and silence reigns once more.

This caper has kept me steady while working on the chapel centenary DVD. It's half ready – and there are just under 3 weeks to go. We had an extension to the middle of this month which has helped a lot.

Music reigns in Paraguay

Another diversion was a concert by a British classical guitarist who has taken the Paraguayan music scene by storm.

The No 26 bus is one he took across the South Downs to Brighton as a child on his way to music lessons. Richard has made a speciality of playing the music of Augustin Barrios, a legendary Paraguayan composer, which gives him an instant place in people's hearts here. There are other wonderful parts to Richard's story which you can read on his website.

Praise and prayers for June

- Thank God for your answered prayers as we have nearly all the photographs we need for the film celebrating the English chapel's centenary.
- That so many people, young and old, have been keen to contribute.
- For my friend Tally who is helping with the displays and doing the maths for the bible covers Mission Paraguay volunteers will sew with church groups in July.

I've been reminded this month by a lovely verse I can share with you:

Your kindness shields those who trust You, Lord. Ps 32.10

With love, Caroline
