Caroline's news for August - September 2012

Mission Paraguay triumphs

Thank you to everyone for your prayers and thoughts for our valiant volunteers. The bible is very often the only book many people here read regularly. But many church goers don't have their own or can't read the one they have because of failing eyesight. So this year money from the sale of spectacles (over 1000 pairs) paid for bibles which the sewing teams made covers for – a virtuous circle of activities!

Bible covers

Living dangerously in the sewing world - a pattern which worked only came together 2 days before our first workshop. To our joy, the people who made the covers in the churches we visited were often people not previously reached. Many women made covers for their husbands which further extended the blessing.

If you would like to make a bible cover, I can send you the pattern. Just contact me.*

Have guitar, will travel

You remember the Torquay candle sales that bought the guitar that Stuart could play? He travelled to 2 cities and many communities in the Paraguayan Chaco. There were serenades, duos and mini concerts to the delight of all in this country of music lovers.

Points for prayer in August and September

- The challenge for Stuart now in his last week is to find someone to hand the guitar on to. Ideally, this would be someone who could lead worship, perhaps on a ranch where there are many people who can't attend church. Please pray he would identify the person of God's choosing.
- Our centenary events are planned from Thurs 20th – Mon 24th September. Pray that all our preparations come right, and that everything we do glorifies the Lord.
