

MARCH 2016

Claire Holmes Give thanks for Claire's safe arrival back to Concepcion last month. Pray for her in each of her ministries, that she will know God's presence and strength in the work she is doing. Pray for the young people that she meets with each week, that they will know God's love and grow stronger in their faith. Pray that the young people in the church will take on more responsibility and be more involved in outreach within the community.

Chris & Alison Hawksbee Please continue to pray for Chris and Alison in their roles in Paraguay. For Chris and his work in the Chaco and for Alison in her role in St Andrew's College as a science teacher and in leading church services in Asuncion. Pray for their safety and good health.

Gwen Carlisle & Mags Southern Pray for Gwen and Mags as they have now started the new school year and all pupils are back at school. Pray for the students, that they will settle back into school life quickly and not be distracted. As St Andrew's College is looking for new teachers, please pray that they will find the right people for the new staff that is needed for the next academic year. Give thanks for all the staff and for the course they were able to undertake on their Computer Management System. Pray too for the families that have been affected by flooding and for the children who may be finding it difficult to attend the annexe school due to movement to higher ground.

FEISA Pray for Lourdes Calderini who took on the role of head of FEISA last year. Give thanks for her enthusiasm and vision and pray for God's guidance on her in this new role. Pray for new first year students at the faculty and for the students who are continuing on from last year.

Cecilia Valdiviezo Pray for Cecilia as she is now back into her busy schedule in Salta. Pray for her as she begins working in an English Institute this month where she will be teaching adults and kids. Pray for the work of Romance Academy which will also be starting within the next few weeks. Pray that Cecilia will know God's guidance and wisdom in each of her ministries this year.

Alec Deane Give thanks for Alec Deane and for all the families that are now involved in the Garden Project. Pray for growth of the Garden Project, that more people will become involved in it and therefore benefitting from it. Pray that the government will provide more support to the project and enable it to expand further.

The Testers Give thanks for Paul and Sarah Tester and their ministry among young people in Lima, Peru. Pray for the young people that they meet with, that they will grow stronger in their faith and begin to take on more roles within the church. Pray too for Paul and Sarah's daughters, Emily and Sophia.
