

Zeballos Cue, Asunción, Paraguay

2005 to 2018

Iglesia El Redentor
(Church of the Redeemer).

July 2005 team from Knockbreda Church, working with Paraguayan builders to begin church extension.

August 2005 team from churches in England concreting roof to extension.

The completed extension providing kitchen and large room for children's ministry.

2007 small school for up to 30 children opened.

Voluntary head teacher, Gloria a member of the Church.

2010 upper storey to extension with access stairway built.

From 2014 increasing numbers of incoming families building timber homes in Zeballos Cue.

2015 improvements to playground and large sandpit built for children.

2016 team from Annaghmore and churches in England building a new home for Catalina a volunteer at the school.

2017 original school demolished and a greatly enlarged new school built to meet increased need.

2017 new secure entrance to church and school site.

2017 new toilet block opened at the church.

2017 youth service in church.

Thank you so much to all those teams from England and Northern Ireland who travel to Paraguay each year to assist in the ministry of the local Anglican Church and to all supporters of SAMS and Mission Paraguay for your ongoing prayer and generosity.

“Let us fix our eyes upon Jesus the author and perfecter of our faith”
Hebrews 12 v2 (NIV)

For further information please contact:

SAMS UK and Ireland. Tel: 028 3831 0144, email: info@samsukireland.com

Or David Orritt, Mission Paraguay Coordinator.
Tel: 01704 892566, email: davidinparaguay@hotmail.com
Website: www.samsukireland.com/projects/mission-paraguay